About This Game

Been looking for the thrill? Then you've come to the right place! Here is a terrifying survival simulator of an abandoned hospital with elements of horror, which will keep you in suspense throughout the game! Insanity Clicker is a time-killer game full of horror and fear that will make you tremble in a couple of minutes!

Imagine: you are alone, the sounds of heads and fists beating behind the bare walls around you can be heard even through them... What's going on here?! First thoughts: I want to get out of here as quickly as possible, but... Am I strong enough?

One click, two clicks - and you're not so weak and vulnerable as you were a moment ago! More clicks, more power! Hitting the wall becomes automatic with time! The one has to be hardy, need to adapt to this place. Pills, mutagens - consume everything you need to stay sane! But they also have to be found somewhere, so clench your fists and step into the unknown!

Still not scared? Then we got tell you about the inhabitants. Maniacs, madmen and mutants – are just a small part of the population of this place. And now the most interesting part - each of them is ready to eat you alive, tear you up into pieces or just kill by the injection of a deadly vaccine. Yeah, deranged former doctors of the hospital will also join the party!

"Look beyond the obvious"

From: root@ns.dot-hackers.net
Subject: A new attack has just happened.

Brian,

There has been another major attack (the fifth) on the main server of worldMed, on December 28th, at 11:23 AM worldMed operates a service that interconnects all hospitals and medical facilities worldwide, to allow quick exchange of information, research data, etc. It's like creating one huge virtual hospital, with resources from all around the world. The interesting part is that nothing was damaged. The entire service was taken under control for 30 minutes ... after which everything got back to normal, like nothing happened. worldMed didn't disclose this incident, to avoid a potential public panic. We have the feeling that this all part of what we are after. You must help us find out what happened.

The character design is adorable. I played it a bit yesterday evening. It's definitely more challenging than PvZ lol. Have a lot of fun playing the game, also i really like the change up in level 4. The game says: "A huge wave coming, Pay your attention." you probably mean --> A huge wave is coming, pay attention. An annoying thing is when enemies get passed the archer you can't shoot them anymore it would be cool if they would turn around and atleast try shooting? don't know if plant vs zombies fixed this but should be an easy thing to give a try maybe? Anyway goodwork!. First off I love this game and the wide variety of maps and weapon's. It is however easy to camp and make the bot come to you. It has a preset way it walks and is Predictable I was able to win several games on hard because of this. It is a great game still especially if you keep moving in solo. I didn't get a lot of multiplayer time in so that is about it. I would definitely recommend this game for anyone who loves screen cheating in different games

Thank you for your time. quot;Easy to learn, difficult to master"

It's a simple and charming platforming game where you use a fishing line to swing around 60 abstract-like stages.

There is no story present (even though something like time travel is mentioned in one of the character cards you can unlock), but that isn't really a problem here, as the gameplay was always the main focus of the series. You can choose between a few different characters, but aside the player model and small differences, the gameplay is the same.

While at first it's possible to get frustrated with the swinging mechanics, it feels really satisfying to quickly go through the levels pulling off all different kinds of techniques, as all the levels are built with multiple paths for different levels of expertise, with collectible backpacks scattered across the stages for those who want to go for the extra completion.

This is a straight port from the PSVita version, but for some reason the original SNES game that was included is now sold separately, so that's a shame. For a better experience, i recommend playing with a controller and using Durante's "GeDoSaTo" tool to make the game look better.

Also, Noko best girl.. Sadly Maniplanet broke the game. I really love TM but this just ruins things, and they're not fixing anything for old players as far as I've found.

A sad departure.. It's pretty good.

No teleporting. This seems to be a hard feature to find actually.

It feels like an indie game, but its cheap and not just a 5min tech demo, dead multiplayer arena, or empty open world.

I wish the shield was a bit bigger.

The enemies are mostly hovering spheres, triangles, etc which is somewhat less interesting than in other games.

Soundtrack is fitting.

. After a couple of hours this morning: A game with big potential. Flight-SIM and City-Building in one, for me a \u201cmust have\u201d. I am looking forward to the next 12 months how it will grow. I think the content is o.k. for this early stage of development. Maybe the \u201cBeta\u201d-Tag is a little bit too much\u2026 I would call it more a \u201cBeta\u201d;-) It seems that the developers aiming on system depth (for the ship system) in the near\far future as well as on the game-fun-factor (city-\ueconomy-building). The keyboard controls by now are a little bit confusing, but I mapped them to my X52 (POVs mostly). The guy(s) will have a lot of work to do, but I think the price is fair to support the small company. I like it and I will provide more feedback in the discussion section regarding bugs and wishes. Oh regarding stability: Neither crashes or glitches detected by now. But I didn\u2019t start building.. A really nice game which has some lacks like the limited resource gathering possibilities and missing music but still for the price excellent! I played already the first armor clash and can state that the second part has done a nice evolution.

Hopefully the third part is coming and eliminates the remaining lacks, would pay at least 20 bucks for part 3 ^^ this is a fun concept that was never fully realized. the game has not been updated since 2016 and the website for the game hasnt been updated since 2015.

with some polishing and content, this could have been a cool game.

i supported it because i like to see cool things done with video games. if i had known this is where they were going to stop, i wouldnt have done so.

Just... WOW.. ! Things like this are the reason I bought VR. It is not using most complex objects you can see, but the feeling you have... is something. I want more things like this. And I absolutely adore the way they implemented real people in it. Still trying to figure out how... is it object with texture? Or some 3D video?. Dear RED \u2013 Extended is a nice short RPGMaker game. You play as Red, who comes to kill the man that killed her mother. That is all I am saying about the story.

About the game, again it\u2019s short but nice not to hard. The only problem with this is the Price, 2.99 for a short game like this is a bit much. So get it on sale. But all that said it\u2019s a nice short game to play, with nothing else to do so get it if you want you may like it.

. This was my first game on Steam! Let me say, it was awesome! The game, music, and graphics and colors were in my like about this game list!. Really neat skin- boasts a sleek design, but the voice is a little quiet.. I would not recommend this for kids. Or anyone. There are way too many bugs and the interface is not user friendly. There are bugs that cause your car to get stuck during the race. And it happens a lot. Sometimes you even get stuck between invisible things and must restart the race. A lot of cars can't be unlocked. It says 30 coins to unlock, you click, 30 coins are removed, but the car still isn't unlocked. It's either a bug or a horrible user interface. Getting the coins to unlock everything is way too easy. It's for kids yes, but if the game worked and a kid wanted to, he or she could unlock everything in 2 hours. Everything cost the same to unlock and there's no reward for winning a race. Furthermore, the other cars don't collect coins or diamonds so you can just crawl through the track and collect everything. That's what my kids were doing. And that obviously gets boring really fast. The interface has way too many similar looking buttons. It is not intuitive where you should click next. And some of the buttons doesn't do anything at all, it appears. To leave the game, you have to minimize and close it on the taskbar because it doesn't even have an "exit game" menu option. The game seems to have been rushed out and not tested on a single kid beforehand. It's a shame because the idea was good. So please update the game and fix the bugs.. i love ship paints, but i also like that this dlc is somewhat optional, i hope they wont remove paints from the standard game just to sell this :P if they did it would remove some of the grind and loot.

but other than that this dlc is worth it if you like ship customization, i bought it so i can get the "scarred" paint for the trincomalee (fitting for a pirate ship eh?), i also heard about paints being added in the future, i hope they have scarred for constitution.. this game marks the departure from tactical fps, what we all know rainbow as, into more of the norm blah blah shoot lots of dummy bad guys.

also what could be said as the begining of the end of the rainbow series. Although there are a few (non-game-breaking, mostly cosmetic) bugs here and there, I really enjoyed this game. Some of the puzzles are real head-scratchers and I did get the feeling that there's usually more than one way to solve them. I felt like the price was fair.. 4,5/5

Very cool table, a fresh variation of the original Black Belt.

The old master gives you advices or taunts you and the goal is to gradually pass your differents belts.

Objectives are clear with nice, and sometimes, speedy loops which will give you millions of points, very rewarding...

Multiball is quite easy to lit and skill shot needs time but then is easily doable.

All differents modes (challenge, survivor, lamp hunter...etc) are very fun to play on too.

The DMD could use more funny animations to be considerate as a real existing pinball but nonetheless, I highly recommend this table.
